STATE OF MICHIGAN
DEPARTMENT OF STATE POLICE
LANSING

GRETCHEN WHITMER
GOVERNOR

COL. JOSEPH M. GASPER
DIRECTOR

March 24, 2021

SOR Registrant
123 Street Address
Somewhere, Michigan 12345

Subject: Registration Number

On December 31, 2020, the Michigan Sex Offenders Registration Act (SORA) was amended to substantially conform its requirements to the federal Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (SORNA), Title I of the Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006, as amended. See Public Act 295 of 2020.

You are receiving this correspondence because you are a registered individual under Michigan's amended SORA law based on the information maintained by the Michigan State Police's Sex Offender Registry Unit. This correspondence summarizes the major changes within the SORA that affect your registration responsibilities. These changes take effect on March 24, 2021. A more detailed explanation of your reporting obligations will be provided to you at your next verification period.

STUDENT SAFETY ZONES
The requirements that registered individuals not live, work, or loiter within 1000 feet of school property have been eliminated. See Public Act 295 of 2020, repealing MCL 28.733, 28.734, 28.735, and 28.736.

PUBLIC NATURE OF THE TIERING
The amended law also eliminates the publishing of the registrant's tiering on the public internet website. MCL 28.728(3)(e) ("The following information must not be made available on the public internet website described in subsection (2): . . . (e) The individual's tier classification.") (emphasis added).

REGISTERING AND REPORTING EMAIL AND INTERNET IDENTIFIERS
The amended law further provides that the obligations to register and report all electronic mail addresses and internet identifiers registered to or used by an individual only applies to individuals required to be registered under the Act after July 1, 2011. MCL 28.725(2)(a), 28.727(1)(i). In other words, individuals who were required to be registered under the Act prior to July 1, 2011, and who have committed no registrable offense since, have no obligation to register or report electronic mail addresses or internet identifiers under the amended law.

REPORTING OBLIGATIONS UNDER § 28.725 OF THE SORA
Under MCL 28.725(1), registered individuals must update their status for changes in residence or domicile, employment, enrollment as student, or name in person at the registering authority having jurisdiction over his or her residence not more than three business days after the change. MCL 28.725(1) (emphasis added).

Under MCL 28.725(2), registered individuals must update a change to their vehicle information, electronic mail addresses, internet identifiers, telephone numbers, or temporary residence not more than three business days after the change in the manner prescribed by the Michigan State Police. MCL 28.725(2).

RECEIVED by MSC 10/17/2025 4:11:33 PM

MANNER PRESCRIBED BY THE MICHIGAN STATE POLICE UNDER § 28.725(2) OF SORA
Under MCL 28.725(2), registered individuals must update a change to their vehicle information, electronic mail addresses, internet identifiers, telephone numbers, or temporary residence not more than three business days after the change in the following manner:

First class mail to the registering authority having jurisdiction over the registered individual's residence that provides updated information regarding the following:

(a) any change in vehicle information,

electronic mail addresses,

internet identifiers, or telephone numbers registered to or used by the individual.

(The requirement to report any change in electronic mail addresses and internet identifiers applies only to an individual required to be registered under this Act after July 1, 2011.) [MCL 28.725(2)(a).]

(b) The individual intends to temporarily reside at any place other than his or her residence for more than 7 days. [MCL 28.725(2)(b).]

A copy of the Michigan State Police form (RI-004A) is included in this notification, which also provides an explanation of your duties.

Also, the form from the Michigan State Police (RI-004A) may be accessed by downloading it from the following website:

www.Michigan.gov/MSPforms

The letter must be postmarked no later than three business days after the date of the change.

Alternatively, the form may be dropped off, or the information may be provided, in person at the registering authority having jurisdiction over the registered individual's residence no later than three business days after the date of the change. But there is no requirement to drop off the updated information in person.

THE FORM SHOULD NOT BE MAILED TO THE MICHIGAN STATE POLICE SEX OFFENDER REGISTRY UNIT IN LANSING.

CLARIFICATIONS REGARDING TELEPHONE NUMBERS, ELECTRONIC MAIL ADDRESSES AND INTERNET IDENTIFIERS, AND VEHICLE INFORMATION
Under MCL 28.722(g), the amended law provides that the term 'internet identifier' means 'all designations used for self-identification or routing in internet communications or posting.'

Under MCL 28.727(1), registered individuals must provide all the following information for registration purposes, with changes to (h), (i), and (j):

(a) The individual's legal name and any aliases, nicknames, ethnic or tribal names, or other names by which the individual is or has been known. An individual who is in a witness protection and relocation program is only required to use the name and identifying information reflecting his or her new identity in a registration under this act. The registration and compilation databases must not contain any information identifying the individual's prior identity or locale.

(b) The individual's Social Security number and any Social Security numbers or alleged Social Security numbers previously used by the individual.

(c) The individual's date of birth and any alleged dates of birth previously used by the individual.

(d) The address where the individual resides or will reside. If the individual does not have a residential address, information under this subsection must identify the location or area used or to be used by the individual in lieu of a residence or, if the individual is homeless, the village, city, or township where the person spends or will spend the majority of his or her time.

(e) The name and address of any place of temporary lodging used or to be used by the individual during any period in which the individual is away, or is expected to be away, from his or her residence for more than 7 days. Information under this subdivision must include the dates the lodging is used or to be used.

(f) The name and address of each of the individual's employers. For purposes of this subdivision, 'employer' includes a contractor and any individual who has agreed to hire or contract with the individual for his or her services. Information under this subsection must include the address or location of employment if different from the address of the employer. If the individual lacks a fixed employment location, the information obtained under this subdivision must include the general areas where the individual works and the normal travel routes taken by the individual in the course of his or her employment.

(g) The name and address of any school being attended by the individual and any school that has accepted the individual as a student that he or she plans to attend. For purposes of this subdivision, 'school' means a public or private postsecondary school or school of higher education, including a trade school.

(h) All telephone numbers registered to the individual or used by the individual, including, but not limited to, residential, work, and mobile telephone numbers.

(i) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, all electronic mail addresses and internet identifiers registered to or used by the individual. This subdivision applies only to an individual required to be registered under this act after July 1, 2011.

(j) The license plate number and description of any vehicle owned or operated by the individual.

(k) The individual's driver license number or state personal identification card number.

(l) A digital copy of the individual's passport and other immigration documents.

(m) The individual's occupational and professional licensing information, including any license that authorizes the individual to engage in any occupation, profession, trade, or business.

(n) A brief summary of the individual's convictions for listed offenses regardless of when the conviction occurred, including where the offense occurred and the original charge if the conviction was for a lesser offense.

(o) A complete physical description of the individual.

(p) The photograph required under section 5a.

(q) The individual's fingerprints if not already on file with the department and the individual's palm prints. An individual required to be registered under this act shall have his or her fingerprints or palmprints or both taken not later than September 12, 2011 if his or her fingerprints or palmprints are not already on file with the department. The department shall forward a copy of the individual's fingerprints and palm prints to the Federal Bureau of Investigation if not already on file with that bureau.

(r) Information that is required to be reported under section 4a. [MCL 28.727(1).]

> (a) 'Convicted' means 1 of the following:
> > (i) Having a judgment of conviction or a probation order entered in any court having jurisdiction over criminal offenses, including, but not limited to, a tribal court or a military court. An individual who is assigned to and successfully completes a term of supervision under sections 11 to 15 of chapter II of the code of criminal procedure, 1927 PA 175, MCL 762.11 to 762.15, is not convicted for purposes of this act. This subparagraph does not apply if a petition was granted under section 8c at any time allowing the individual to discontinue registration under this act, including a reduced registration period that extends to or past July 1, 2011, regardless of the tier designation that would apply on and after that date.
> > (iii) Having an order of disposition entered under section 18 of chapter XIIA of the probate code of 1939, 1939 PA 288, MCL 712A.18, that is open to the general public under section 28 of chapter XIIA of the probate code of 1939, 1939 PA 288, MCL 712A.28, if both of the following apply:

> > > (A) The individual was 14 years of age or older at the time of the offense.
> > >
> > > (B) The order of disposition is for the commission of an offense that would classify the individual as a tier III offender.
> >
> > (iv) Having an order of disposition or other adjudication in a juvenile matter in another state or country if both of the following apply:

>
> [MCL 28.722(a).]

CONVICTIONS THAT HAVE BEEN EXPUNGED

Under MCL 28.725(16), for an individual who has had his or her conviction set aside or otherwise expunged, the individual may present that order to the Michigan State Police or the appropriate registering authority having jurisdiction over his or her residence to have the registration discontinued:

> If an individual required to be registered under this act presents an order to the department or the appropriate registering authority that the conviction or adjudication for which the individual is required to be registered under this act has been set aside under 1965 PA 213, MCL 780.621 to 780.624, or has been otherwise expunged, his or her registration under this act must be discontinued. If this subsection applies, the department shall remove the individual from both the law enforcement database and the public internet website maintained under section 8.
> [MCL 28.725(16).]

EXCEPTION TO MAINTAIN STATE IDENTIFICATION FOR HOMELESS PERSONS

In addition, the officer or authorized employee may require the individual to produce another document bearing his or her name and address, including, but not limited to, voter registration or a utility or other bill. The department may specify other satisfactory proof of domicile or residence. The requirement to maintain a valid operator's or chauffeur's license issued under the Michigan vehicle code, 1949 PA 300, MCL 257.1 to 257.923, or an official state personal identification card issued under 1972 PA 222, MCL 28.291 to 28.300, does not apply to an individual required to be registered under this act who is homeless. As used in this subsection, 'homeless' means someone who lacks a fixed or temporary residence.

STATE OF MICHIGAN

COURT OF APPEALS

PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF MICHIGAN, Plaintiff-Appellee,	UNPUBLISHED May 9, 2017
v	No. 331716 Barry Circuit Court
DONALD LEE BUSH, Defendant-Appellant.	LC No. 15-000543-FH

Before: WILDER, P.J., and BOONSTRA and O'BRIEN, JJ.

PER CURIAM.

Defendant was convicted of failing to comply with his reporting obligations under MCL 28.729(2), part of Michigan's Sex Offender Registration Act (SORA), MCL 28.721 et seq. The trial court sentenced defendant as a fourth-offense habitual offender, MCL 769.12, to 96 months to 15 years' imprisonment. Defendant appeals his sentence by delayed leave granted.[1] We affirm.

I. PERTINENT FACTS AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

As a previously convicted sex offender, defendant was obligated to periodically report his residence or domicile, to participate in the verification of the information provided, and to pay a registration fee. MCL 28.725a. Defendant had registered an address in 2014, but he failed to report for SORA verification in March 2015 and did not pay his registration fee. At some point, he moved from his registered address and failed to register his new address. Also in March 2015, the Barry County district court issued a bench warrant for defendant's arrest. According to the pre-sentence investigation report (PSIR) prepared by the probation department, the bench warrant related in some fashion to defendant's 2013 plea-based conviction for misdemeanor assault and battery, originally charged as aggravated assault.

On May 4, 2015, defendant was arrested for failing to comply with his SORA reporting duties. Upon his arrest, defendant admitted that he had deliberately not registered his new address because he knew that he had an outstanding bench warrant. Defendant also admitted to possessing a cellular phone that he had not reported as required by SORA. Defendant was also charged at that time with possession of marijuana, although the PSIR lists that offense as "dismissed."

Defendant pled guilty to one count of failing to update sex offender registration, MCL 28.729(2), a felony under the Code of Criminal Procedure[2], in return for the dismissal of two other charges: failure to comply with SORA, MCL 28.729(1), a felony under both the Penal Code and the Code of Criminal Procedure; and failure or refusal to pay the SORA registration fee, MCL 28.729(4), a misdemeanor.

In addition to these current charges, the PSIR reflects that since 1990, defendant has been convicted of 3 counts of criminal sexual conduct in the second degree (CSC II) (person under 13), one count of breaking and entering a motor vehicle to commit larceny, two counts of criminal sexual conduct in the third degree (CSC III), and a plea-based conviction of attempted failure to comply with SORA in 2013. Defendant thus was previously convicted of 5 high-severity felonies, MCL 777.51, all sex offenses, as well as two low-severity felonies, MCL 777.52. Defendant was also convicted of 6 misdemeanors; these included, apart from multiple convictions related to the suspension of his driver's license, convictions for failing to report an automobile accident and two assaultive misdemeanors: domestic violence and the earlier-referenced misdemeanor assault and battery conviction pled down from aggravated assault.[3]

Defendant also possesses a juvenile criminal history that included a conviction for larceny (of a shotgun) and the dismissal by plea agreement of another larceny charge and a charge for possession of a switchblade. According to the PSIR, defendant was first arrested at the age of 15, and, by the age of 43, and counting juvenile convictions, prior adult convictions and the instant conviction, had managed to be convicted of 15 offenses between 1986 and 2015. Finally, the PSIR also contained defendant's admissions that he had been smoking marijuana daily, other than during periods of incarceration, since he was 17, and that he had used methamphetamine from 2014 until his arrest for the instant offense. The probation department recommended, "[i]n the interest of public safety," that defendant be sentenced to a minimum sentence of 6 years' imprisonment, a sentence outside the recommended guidelines range of 10 to 46 months' imprisonment, noting that "the [s]entencing guidelines do not take into account the total prior convictions for Criminal Sexual Conduct or the assaultive nature of prior scorable misdemeanor convictions."

The prosecution presented the trial court with a sentencing memorandum before sentencing, in which it also pointed out that the sentencing guidelines did not account for all of defendant's prior offenses and urged the trial court to consider defendant's extensive criminal history and the fact that defendant had not been deterred by numerous prior incarcerations. The prosecution sought a minimum sentence of 116 months (9 years and 8 months).

At sentencing, the prosecution noted that defendant had been "charged in the past with three separate CSC's, so three separate victims, over a period of time, so it's not like it was one case with three separate victims, three separate cases separated by a prison term." The prosecution further argued that "[w]hen [defendant] was here just a year or two ago on a failure to register as a sex offender case, he was given a jail sentence. In the jail he committed an aggravated assault, so he's a sexual predator, he's violent, and he's not following the rules of the sex offender registration." The prosecution reiterated its recommendation for a minimum sentence of 116 months as "a perfectly reasonable sentence," offering that "for public safety [defendant] needs to be locked up for as long as possible."

The trial court noted that defendant had seven felonies and six misdemeanors, although it erroneously stated that three of defendant's felonies were sexual offenses; in fact, fully five of them were. The trial court also noted that defendant was "exactly the kind of person we wanna [sic] keep track of," and yet he had "blown off" SORA registration twice in two years. Defendant admitted to the trial court that his recent assault and battery conviction had occurred while he was in jail for another offense. The trial court stated that it had read the prosecution's sentencing memorandum and that it believed that "the scoring for prior offenses, particularly in a situation like [defendant's], are grossly underweighted" in light of the number and types of offenses defendant had committed, as well as the fact that defendant's previous incarcerations had not deterred or rehabilitated him. The trial court concluded:

> I'm ordering that you serve—for the reasons stated by the prosecutor and stated by this Court regarding the sentencing guidelines, which have been taken into consideration and are recognized by this Court—however, as far as a substantial and compelling reason to depart, I do find that to be a reason: The—the fact that the prior record variables are grossly underweighted and particularly with respect to the type of crimes that were committed and the relationship between the nature of this crime in conjunction with the prior crimes—this Court believes a reasonable sentence would be 96 to 180 months in the Michigan Department of Corrections. You have credit for 115 days.

This appeal followed.

II. STANDARD OF REVIEW

We review a trial court's upward departure from a defendant's calculated guidelines range for reasonableness. People v Lockridge, 498 Mich 358, 391-392; 870 NW2d 502 (2015). We review the reasonableness of a sentence for an abuse of the trial court's discretion. See People v Steanhouse, 313 Mich App 1, 44-47; 880 NW2d 297 (2015), lv gtd 499 Mich 934 (2016), quoting People v Milbourn, 435 Mich 630, 634-636; 461 NW2d 1 (1990). [People v Walden, ___ Mich App ___, ___; ___ NW2d ___ (2017), slip op at 4.]

III. ANALYSIS

Defendant argues that the trial court erred by adopting the prosecution's rationale for the upward departure, because the factors considered by the court to justify the sentence were factors considered already in defendant's guidelines range; therefore, defendant asserts, his sentence is unreasonable and requires remand and resentencing. We disagree.

We recently discussed the analytical framework for a defendant's claim that his sentence is unreasonable under Lockridge:

> With regard to defendant's claim that his sentence was substantively unreasonable, our Supreme Court in Lockridge, 498 Mich at 364-365, rendered the Michigan sentencing guidelines advisory. Additionally, the Court in Lockridge determined that trial courts are no longer required to articulate substantial and compelling reasons to depart from the minimum sentencing guidelines range; rather, the sentence must only be reasonable. Id. at 391-392. This Court has stated that a sentence is reasonable under Lockridge if it meets the principle of proportionality enumerated in Milbourn. Steanhouse, 313 Mich App at 22. "[T]he principle of proportionality . . . requires sentences imposed by the trial court to be proportionate to the seriousness of the circumstances surrounding the offense and the offender." Milbourn, 435 Mich at 363. Put another way, "the [trial] judge ... must take into account the nature of the offense and the background of the offender." Id. at 651. As our Supreme Court has stated:
>
> > [D]epartures [from the minimum sentencing guidelines] are appropriate where the guidelines do not adequately account for important factors legitimately considered at sentencing . . . . [T]rial judges may continue to depart from the guidelines when, in their judgment, the recommended range under the guidelines is disproportionate, in either direction, to the seriousness of the crime. [Milbourn, 435 Mich at 656-657.]
>
> Factors that may be considered by a trial court under the proportionality standard include, but are not limited to:
> > (1) the seriousness of the offense . . . , (2) factors that were inadequately considered by the guidelines . . ., and (3) factors not considered by the guidelines, such as the relationship between the victim and the aggressor . . ., the defendant's misconduct while in custody . . ., the defendant's expressions of remorse . . ., and the defendant's potential for rehabilitation. Here, as in Walden, the trial court sentenced defendant shortly after Lockridge was decided by our Supreme Court, and specific reference was made to Lockridge at the sentencing hearing.[4] Id. at 5. The court was therefore aware of the applicable reasonableness standard.

Based on the record, we conclude, as in Walden, that the trial court did not abuse its discretion, that the sentence imposed satisfied the requirement that a sentencing departure be "proportionate to the seriousness of the circumstances of the offense and the offender," Milbourn, 435 Mich at 636, and that it was therefore reasonable under Lockridge. Although defendant argues that the PRVs and fourth-offense habitual offender status already account for defendant's prior record, we agree with the trial court that defendant's prior record variable score, and specifically the score for PRV 1 (prior high-severity felonies) was grossly underweighted. The maximum number of points scored for PRV 1 is 75 for three high-severity felonies. Defendant had five such felonies, all of them sexual offenses. Thus two of his CSC convictions were not accounted for in his PRV score.[5] Further, the sentencing enhancement for a fourth-offense habitual offender only takes into account 3 prior felony convictions and the sentencing offense, leaving many of defendant's prior felonies unaccounted-for; if Michigan had an eight-offense habitual offender status, defendant's argument would be much more persuasive. Finally, the nature of the prior offenses as sex offenses cannot be understated in relation to the instant offense. With five previous sexual offenses, at least three of them against a child under 13, defendant is precisely the sort of recidivism-prone sexual offender that is "a potential serious menace and danger to the health, safety, morals, and welfare of the people, and particularly the children, of this state[.]" MCL 28.721a. SORA was designed to protect the people and children of Michigan from offenders of defendant's type. Id. The sentencing guidelines simply do not capture the full import of defendant's prior felonies, or the extent to which defendant, by his extensive criminal history, has acted to frustrate the purpose of SORA and to deprive the people of Michigan of its protections.

Additionally, defendant has demonstrated that incarceration has no deterrent or rehabilitative effect on him. Wholly apart from his sexual offenses and other felonies, defendant has a history of other violent offenses, and his most recent assault conviction occurred while defendant was already incarcerated. Defendant also admitted to the regular use of controlled substances despite having attended substance abuse counselling and groups while incarcerated. Defendant's potential for rehabilitation can only be described as abysmal, while his propensity for recidivism and misconduct even while in custody is high; the trial court properly recognized that the guidelines did not take these factors into account. Steanhouse, 313 Mich App at 46.

[4] Although the trial court referred to "substantial and compelling" reasons to depart from the guidelines range, which could be interpreted as reference to the pre-Lockridge standard, the trial court also stated that the sentence was "reasonable." Counsel for both parties made reference to Lockridge before the trial court, and to their understanding that the sentencing was proceeding under the standards set forth in that case.

[5] We note that the scoring of this PRV does not change depending on whether the underlying convictions are for three CSC II convictions or whether the scoring is in part based on CSC III convictions.

RECEIVED by MSC 10/17/2025 4:11:33 PM

Finally, while the trial court did not speak explicitly to the reasonableness of the amount of the departure, we conclude that it did not abuse its discretion in light of these considerations. We discern from the record that the length of the sentence was proportionate to the offense and the offender; indeed, as the prosecution points out, calculating defendant's score for his PRVs in a way that accounts for all of his prior convictions would result in nearly double his total PRV score, without even considering the other factors at issue here such as defendant's demonstrated immunity to rehabilitation or deterrence and his repeated frustrating of the protective purpose of SORA. See Milbourn, 435 Mich at 660, citing People v McKinley, 168 Mich App 496, 512; 425 NW2d 460 (1988). The trial court's minimum sentence of 96 months' imprisonment also was well within the two-thirds rule of People v Tanner, 387 Mich 683; 199 NW2d 202 (1972). For all of these reasons, we find no abuse of discretion. Steanhouse, 313 Mich App at 46; Walden, ___ Mich App at ___.
