MOBILE HOME OWNER'S RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS IN MOBILE HOME PARK (JUST-CAUSE TERMINATIONS)

MCL 600.5781

When tenancy in a mobile home park is terminated for just cause:

Even though you must move out of your mobile home within 10 days of the date of judgment, you may sell your mobile home on site subject to the following conditions.

- (a) You must sell or move the mobile home within 90 days after the date of a judgment of possession. If the mobile home park owner or operator denies tenancy to a person who offers to purchase the mobile home within this 90-day period, the time period shall be extended for another 90 days.
- (b) You are required to pay all rent and other charges for the mobile home site on time during this 90-day period or during any proper extension of the time period under (a). If you fail to pay on time, the owner or operator of the mobile home park can seek to have you evicted immediately.
- (c) The owner or operator of the mobile home park may disconnect all utilities supplied by the mobile home park 10 days after the date of a judgment of possession.
- (d) Within 10 days after the date of a judgment of possession, you must provide the owner or operator of the mobile home park with proof that the mobile home has been properly winterized by a licensed mobile home installer and repairer. If you fail to provide this proof within 10 days, the owner or operator of the mobile home park can seek to have you evicted immediately.
- (e) You must continue to maintain the mobile home and mobile home site in accordance with the rules and regulations of the mobile home park.
- (f) The mobile home park must provide you with reasonable access to the mobile home and the mobile home site for the purpose of maintaining the mobile home and mobile home site and selling the mobile home.

If you do not move or sell your mobile home within the time limits stated above, the mobile home park owner or operator may have the mobile home removed.

If you continue to live in the mobile home beyond the 10 days after the date of the judgment of possession, the mobile home park owner or operator can seek to have you evicted.
