

ADM File No. 2009-29

>>> "Marshall, Sandra" <smarshall@orlaw.com> 1/21/2011 6:50 PM >>>

I agree.

In addition to bringing attention to a surviving spouse, I think that if you have the decedent's last known address on the Notice to Creditors' form and the house is now unoccupied because there is no surviving spouse, it opens the house up to vandalism or even squatters if there are no close family members to monitor the home.

Just my thoughts.

Thank you.

O'Reilly Rancilio P.C.
Sandra F. Marshall

Legal Assistant
Direct: 586-997-6490
Sterling Town Center

smarshall@orlaw.com
12900 Hall Road, Suite 350
Main: 586-726-1000
Sterling Heights, MI 48313
Fax: 586-726-1560

www.orlaw.com

Neither this information block, the typed name of the sender, nor anything else in this message is intended to constitute an Electronic signature unless a specific statement to the contrary is included in this message.

IRS Circular 230 Disclosure: To ensure compliance with requirements imposed by the Internal Revenue Service, we inform you that any U.S. federal tax advice contained in this communication (including any attachments) was not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used, by any person for the purpose of (i) avoiding tax-related penalties or (ii) promoting, marketing or recommending to another person any transaction or matter addressed in this communication.

The information contained in this message is intended only for the personal and confidential use of the designated recipients named above. This message may be an attorney-client communication, and as such would be privileged and confidential. If the reader of this message is not the intended recipient or any agent responsible for delivering it to the intended recipient, you are hereby notified that you have received this document in error, and that any review, dissemination, distribution or copying of this message is strictly prohibited. If you have received this communication in error, please notify us immediately by telephone and destroy the original message. Thank you.