THIS ORDER IS BASED ON THE FOLLOWING FINDINGS:

15. A law enforcement officer responding to a complaint involving the respondent requested an immediate emergency ex parte extreme risk protection order under MCL 691.1801 et. seq. Pursuant to MCL 691.1807(4), and after considering the factors identified in MCL 691.1807(1), the court finds by a preponderance of evidence that the respondent can reasonably be expected within the near future to intentionally or unintentionally seriously physically injure himself or another individual by possessing a firearm, and has engaged in an act or acts or made significant threats that substantially support the expectation that the respondent will intentionally or unintentionally seriously physically injure himself or another individual by possessing a firearm.
16. Petitioner requested an ex parte order. Based on clear and convincing evidence, an ex parte order should be entered without notice because:

- ☐ Violation of a previous or existing extreme risk protection order
- ☐ Violation of a previous or existing personal protection order under MCL 600.2950 or MCL 600.2950a

- ☐ Previous criminal conviction of, pending criminal charges against, or previous or pending juvenile delinquency petitions against the responding for the commission or attempted commission of any of the following offenses:

  - ☐ a serious misdemeanor, as that term is defined in MCL 780.811
- ☐ Evidence of recent unlawful use of controlled substances by the respondent
- ☐ Recent abuse of alcohol
- ☐ Previous unlawful possession, use, display, or brandishing of a deadly weapon by the respondent
