There being no opposition from petitioner-appellee, the motion to vacate the order terminating appellant-mother’s parental rights is GRANTED, the January 11, 2022 order of the Family Division of the Hillsdale Circuit Court terminating appellant-mother’s parental rights is VACATED, and this matter is REMANDED to the family court for a new termination hearing. The family court violated respondent-mother’s rights to due process and first-tier appellate review by providing the court reporter with recordings of the proceedings of such poor quality as to render a complete transcription of those proceedings wholly impossible. The claim of appeal is DISMISSED.

We do not retain jurisdiction. This order has immediate effect. MCR 7.215(F)(2).
