In accordance with the opinion issued concurrently with this order, and on the Court's own motion, the Court finds that appellant is a vexatious litigator under MCR 7.216(C)(3). The Court also finds it appropriate to impose pre-filing restrictions on appellant in this Court as authorized by the court rule. Specifically, effective the date of this order, appellant may not institute new legal proceedings in this Court without first obtaining leave to do so. If defendant wishes to seek leave to institute any further legal proceedings in this Court, he must include with his request for leave an affidavit in which he certifies that his proposed filing is not frivolous, has not been made in bad faith, and is well-grounded in fact. The request for leave must be accompanied by the filing fee required by MCL 600.321 and a surety bond in the amount of $2,500 posted as security for costs. The amount of the security for costs may be modified by this Court upon a motion filed by any party and a showing of good cause.

This order shall have immediate effect. MCR 7.215(F)(2).
