The delayed application for leave to appeal is DENIED because defendant has failed to establish that the trial court erred in denying the successive motion for relief from judgment. Presuming that the affidavits and evidentiary hearing testimony from Bennie Robinson and Antonio Payton amount to new evidence that survives the procedural bar of MCR 6.502(G), considering this evidence along with that presented at trial, defendant has not established that a different result is probable on retrial. See People v Johnson, 502 Mich 541, 566-567, 571-572. Accordingly, the trial court correctly denied the successive motion for relief from judgment.
