On the Court's own motion, appellant is directed to file a supplemental brief addressing whether the appeal has been rendered moot by the trial court's August 12, 2025 order terminating its jurisdiction over the minor without terminating respondent's parental rights. Appellant's supplemental brief shall be filed within 14 days after issuance of this order. Appellees may then each file a supplemental brief within 14 days of service of appellant's supplemental brief. Alternatively, if appellant agrees that the appeal is moot, appellant may move to voluntarily withdraw this appeal.
