Court of Appeals, State of Michigan

ORDER

MACOMB INTERMEDIATE SCHOOL DISTRICT V STATE OF MICHIGAN

Docket No. 378748

LC No. 25-000175-MZ

The motion for immediate consideration is GRANTED.

The emergency motion for order to show cause why defendants-appellees should not be held in contempt for violating a court order is DENIED because the assertedly contemptuous conduct involves alleged violation of a trial court order. Any contempt in that regard would be against the trial court, not this Court. This order is without prejudice to plaintiffs-appellants filing a motion in the trial court to seek relief for the alleged contemptuous conduct. We note that, while MCR 7.208(A) generally bars a trial court from setting aside or amending the judgment or order appealed from after a claim of appeal is filed, we are aware of no authority that would preclude the trial court from granting (or denying) a motion seeking to hold a party in contempt for alleged violation of a trial court order while this appeal is pending.
