Judges

The motion for immediate consideration is GRANTED.

The motion to compel is GRANTED. Within 14 days of the date of this order, the Berrien County Prosecutor's Office (Prosecutor) shall provide the State Appellate Defender Office (SADO) with a copy of any recorded Children's Advocacy Center (CAC) interviews of the minor, H.C., in the above-captioned case. The recorded CAC interview(s) shall not be copied, released, displayed, or circulated outside of the SADO defense team, with the exception that any experts retained by SADO may analyze the interview(s) and any stenographer retained by SADO may transcribe the contents of the interview(s). SADO may provide a copy of the recorded CAC interview(s) to this Court or any other reviewing court upon request from those reviewing courts in adjudicating Mr. Braddock's appeal. If a reviewing court requests a copy of the CAC interview, the corresponding Clerk's office shall treat the CAC interview as confidential, non-public material upon receipt. SADO and any other recipients of the recorded CAC interview(s) must destroy or delete the copies of said interview(s) in their possession upon final disposition of this appeal.
