The Court orders that the motions to remand are GRANTED. This case is REMANDED to the trial court so that court can settle the record for the trial proceedings on April 30, 2025. Proceedings on remand are limited to the issues raised in the motions to remand. This Court retains jurisdiction.

Appellee Department of Health and Human Services and appellant Ross shall make an appropriate filing in the trial court within 14 days after the date of this order. The time for further proceedings in this appeal shall begin to run on the issuance of an order in the trial court that concludes the remand proceedings. However, if appellee DHHS and appellant Ross fail to file a motion to initiate the proceedings within the time provided, the time for further proceedings in this appeal shall begin to run at the conclusion of the 14-day period. Appellee DHHS and appellant Ross shall file with this Court a copy of any motion and supporting brief filed in the trial court, and appellee DHHS and appellant Ross shall file a copy of any order entered within 14 days after its entry.

The trial court shall hear and decide the matter within 56 days of the date of this order. The trial court shall make an appropriate determination on the record. The trial court shall cause a transcript of any proceedings on remand to be prepared and filed within 21 days after completion of the proceedings. Appellant Ross my file his brief within 21 days after the court's decision disposing of all issues on remand or the filing of the transcript of all proceedings held on remand, whichever occurs later. Appellant King may file a supplemental brief within 21 days after the court's decision disposing of all issues on remand or the filing of the transcript of all proceedings held on remand, whichever occurs later.
