

Name: Troy DeLong

Date: 10/26/2022

ADM File Number: 2020-08

Comment:

These proposed amendments will hurt landlords and only encourage negligent tenants to go without paying rent for longer periods of time. When tenants don't pay rent, landlords have less money to invest into that property and others like it, they have less trust in future tenants, and eventually decent tenants who actually pay rent will be covering the added expense of lost rent with higher rents across the state.

NO to these proposed amendments.