The motion to remand is GRANTED. This case is REMANDED to the trial court to allow respondent to file a motion to settle the record of the missing portions of the hearing held on October 10, 2025. This Court retains jurisdiction.

Within 14 days after the date this order is entered, respondent shall initiate the proceedings on remand by filing a motion to settle the record under MCR 7.210(B)(2). The motion to settle the record shall include a proposed statement of the substance of the missing testimony of respondent and his mother at the hearing held on October 10, 2025. See MCR 7.210(B)(2)(a). The time for further proceedings in this appeal shall begin to run on entry of an order settling the record under MCR 7.210(B)(2)(c).

If defendant fails to file a motion to initiate the proceedings within the time provided, the time for further proceedings in this appeal shall begin to run at the conclusion of that 14-day period. Defendant shall file with this Court a copy of any motion and supporting brief filed in the trial court, and defendant shall file a copy of any order entered within 14 days after entry.

The trial court shall decide the matter within 28 days after the date this order is entered and order a transcript of any hearing to be prepared at public expense within 21 days.

Respondent's appellant brief is due within 28 days after entry of the order certifying a settled statement of facts under MCR 7.210(B)(2)(c).
