MEMORANDUM

DATE: October 31, 2023
FROM: SCAO Forms Team
RE: Changes to Landlord-Tenant forms

Below is a list of SCAO-approved court forms that were recently created or revised. An explanation of the changes, along with instructions on use of previously approved versions and a copy of the form with the changes highlighted, is provided.

If a form is used by the court through a JIS case management system, you will receive a separate notice from JIS regarding the release of the form. Until then, please use the current version posted to the One Court of Justice website.

PLEASE NOTE: Instructions for the DC 102 series and the DC 111 series will be published shortly.

*For forms designated with an asterisk below, the form version in use prior to the (11/23) version published here will remain on the form website through December 5, 2023, for use in courts that have received approval of an extension to delay implementation of changes pursuant to the Court's order issued September 7, 2023, in ADM File No. 2020-08.

For suggestions about these court forms, please contact CourtFormsInfo@courts.mi.gov.

HOW TO GET HELP

- You have received an important legal document from a court. Your landlord is trying to evict you. This means you could lose your housing and you could owe your landlord money. It is important to respond to this quickly.
- You may hire an attorney to help you answer the complaint and prepare defenses. If you cannot afford an attorney, you can get help at michiganlegalhelp.org or you might qualify for assistance through a local legal aid office. If you do not have Internet access at home, you can access the Internet at your local library.
- If you do not have an attorney, but have money to hire one, you can find an attorney through the State Bar of Michigan Lawyer Referral Service at 1-800-968-0738 or a local lawyer referral service at michbar.org.
- If you require accommodations to use the court because of a disability or if you require a foreign language interpreter to help you fully participate in court proceedings, please contact the court immediately to make arrangements.

MOBILE HOME OWNER'S RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS IN MOBILE HOME PARK (JUST-CAUSE TERMINATIONS)

MCL 600.5781

When tenancy in a mobile home park is terminated for just cause:

Even though you must move out of your mobile home within 10 days of the date of judgment, you may sell your mobile home on site subject to the following conditions.

- (a) You must sell or move the mobile home within 90 days after the date of a judgment of possession. If the mobile home park owner or operator denies tenancy to a person who offers to purchase the mobile home within this 90-day period, the time period shall be extended for another 90 days.
- (b) You are required to pay all rent and other charges for the mobile home site on time during this 90-day period or during any proper extension of the time period under (a). If you fail to pay on time, the owner or operator of the mobile home park can seek to have you evicted immediately.
- (c) The owner or operator of the mobile home park may disconnect all utilities supplied by the mobile home park 10 days after the date of a judgment of possession.
- (d) Within 10 days after the date of judgment of possession, you must provide the owner or operator of the mobile home park with proof that the mobile home has been properly winterized by a licensed mobile home installer and repairer. If you fail to provide this proof within 10 days, the owner or operator of the mobile home park can seek to have you evicted immediately.
- (e) You must continue to maintain the mobile home and mobile home site in accordance with the rules and regulations of the mobile home park.
- (f) The mobile home park must provide you with reasonable access to the mobile home and the mobile home site for the purpose of maintaining the mobile home and mobile home site and selling the mobile home.

If you do not move or sell your mobile home within the time limits stated above, the mobile home park owner or operator may have the mobile home removed.

If you continue to live in the mobile home beyond the 10 days after the date of the judgment of possession, the mobile home park owner or operator can seek to have you evicted.

4. If defendant fails to pay the rent and other costs or meet other conditions as set forth above the plaintiff may seek entry of an order for reinstatement of the case and entry of judgment.

a. Plaintiff shall file an affidavit with the court and serve the defendant with the affidavit and notice as required by MCR 2.602(C). If defendant does not file verified objections to the affidavit within 14 days of service of the notice pursuant to MCR 2.602(C)(2)(d), the order for reinstatement of case and entry of judgment, a judgment for money (if eligible and requested in the complaint), and an order of eviction shall enter simultaneously without notice or further process.*

OR

b. This action may proceed without notice to the defendant or further process. The parties specifically waive notice under MCR 2.602(C)(2)(d) and MCR 4.201(M)(3). This action will be reinstated upon the plaintiff's submission of an affidavit of default, order for reinstatement of case and entry of judgment, a judgment for money (if eligible and requested in the complaint), and an order of eviction, which will enter simultaneously without notice or further process.*

*For a defendant on active military duty, default judgment shall not be entered except as provided by the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act.

- 5. Defendant remains responsible for paying the entire amount as stated in this order that is not paid by Michigan Department of Health and Human Services (MDHHS) or any other third party within the time period provided by this order.
- 6. The defendant may be liable for money damages if additional rent is owed or if there is damage to the property.
- 7. Partial payment by defendant of the amount due in item 2d above will not prevent issuance of an order of eviction should a judgment enter after default on this conditional dismissal.

MCR 4.201(J) was explained to the parties.

Advice of Rights and Information (Landlord-Tenant)

This information explains your rights as a tenant (defendant) when your landlord has filed a case to evict you. They may also be asking the court to order you to pay money.

You should also have received separate information about where you can apply for rental or other housing assistance.

Read this form carefully.

Notice of Rights

1. Attorney

You have the right to hire an attorney. If you cannot pay for one, the court must give you information about any legal aid assistance there might be for your area.

2. Place where case will be heard

- You have the right to have your case heard in the county or district where the property, or any part of it, is located.
- Look at item 3 on the attached summons (form DC 104). If the landlord (plaintiff) has checked the box saying that the case is not being brought where the premises is located, you can ask the court to transfer the case to the county or district where the property, or any part of it, is.
- You can ask the court to move the case by filing a request (motion) in writing before the court date listed on the summons, or ask the court in person at the first court hearing.

3. Jury trial

- You have the right to demand a jury trial.
- If you want a jury trial, you must tell the court at your first court appearance, or make the demand in writing within 5 days of the court explaining your right to a jury trial.
- You can use form MC 22, Jury Demand, and file it with the court.
- You must pay a $50 fee when you make your demand or within 5 days of the court explaining your right to a jury trial. You do not have to pay the jury fee if you have asked the court to waive fees and the court has approved your request under MCR 2.002.

4. Rental and other housing assistance

If your landlord has asked for you to be evicted from a residential property because you haven't paid rent, you may be able to get assistance from

- the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services (MDHHS)
- a local Coordinated Entry Agency
- a Housing Assessment and Resource Agency
- a federal Help for Homeless Veterans program

You should have received information on local rental and housing assistance with the summons.

You do not need a judgment against you to receive help from the places listed above. A copy of the summons and complaint from your case are enough.

5. Reaching an agreement outside of court

You may be able to reach an agreement with the landlord by going through a Michigan or local community dispute resolution program. You can find a program at courts.mi.gov/CDRP.

6. Conditional dismissal

You may be able to reach an agreement with the landlord that will mean the case gets dismissed. The court must provide you with the form for this or tell you where to find it online.
