On the Court's own motion, plaintiff-appellee is ORDERED to file an answer to the application for leave to appeal within 21 days after the date of this order. The answer shall include discussion of (1) whether a parole detainer had been entered as to defendant in the relevant timeframe and, if so, the relevance of the parole detainer to the jail credit issue raised in the application and (2) whether the issue of a defendant's entitlement to jail credit can be waived and, if so, whether the defense waived the jail credit issue raised in the application at the plea and/or sentencing proceedings in this case.
