Docket No. 379797

The motion to remand is DENIED for failure to persuade the Court of the necessity of a remand at this time. Respondent has not complied with the court rule requirement that an individual bringing a motion to remand must file an affidavit or offer proof "regarding the facts to be established at a hearing." MCR 7.211(C)(1)(a). Though terming nine assertions in his motion to remand his "offer of proof," these assertions are not statements of the facts he would prove at a hearing. Instead, they are simply repetitions of the claims respondent is making in his motion and brief on appeal or citations from the existing record.

Denial of remand is without prejudice to a case call panel of this Court determining that remand is necessary once the case is submitted on a session calendar.
