So I spent a lifetime paying for my home, provided a good place at a reasonable price for someone to live and now you are taking away my rights to timely due process and my retirement income so that someone can steal from me as long as possible????

A national crisis is one thing but this is completely anti American!!! Why should we as citizens follow the laws if with the stroke of a pen you can simply dilute our rights and strip us of our property? Will the government pay my bills while they allow people to live in my house rent free? How about instead you make them move out until they obtain rental assistance. With this provision what delinquent renter in their right mind would ever show up for court?

Do the people proposing this understand we are real people with bills and problems and fixed incomes trying to feed our families and pay our bills?

My life savings is in my home and I go hungry and loose my life savings if I don't get my rent in a timely fashion. If they do know then they obviously don't care.
