

Name: Sarah Battle

Date: 10/31/2022

ADM File Number: 2020-08

Comment:

An extended eviction process would cause significant burden on landlords and rent paying residents alike, creating an environment in which property owners are unable to maintain residential buildings due to a lack of incoming rent and rent paying residents are forced to live in declining conditions amongst non-rent paying neighbors for months on end. It's punitive and unfair towards those that pay rent monthly with the intention of residing in a clean, safe, well-maintained setting.