Appointee Vacancy

Commission on Well-Being in the Law

Commission Member – Solo Practice Attorney

The Michigan Supreme Court is looking for qualified applicants seeking appointment to the Commission on Well-Being in the Law (CWBIL). Please note that this is a volunteer, unpaid position.

Group and Position Summary

The CWBIL is working to change the climate of the legal culture by promoting well-being within the legal profession. The Commission will foster an environment that encourages members of the legal profession, law students, and court staff to strive for greater mental, physical, and emotional health. Questions about serving as a council member should be directed to CWBIL@courts.mi.gov.

The CWBIL consists of 35 members, most of whom are appointed by the Michigan Supreme Court. Generally, commission members serve three-year terms commencing on January 1st of each calendar year. No member may serve more than two full terms.

This year, there is one vacancy for a solo practice attorney position. The term will begin on January 1, 2027 and end on December 31, 2029. Visit the CWBIL website and review Administrative Order 2023-1 for more information about the CWBIL and the duties of council members.

Solo Practice Attorney Education & Experience

- Licensed attorney in good standing in Michigan
- Own and operate a solo practice law firm in Michigan

To Apply:

Please e-mail a resume or CV, and a completed personal background investigation consent form to jobapps@courts.mi.gov and include "Well-Being in the Law Commission" in the subject line. Please include in your e-mail any additional materials you would like the Court to consider (e.g. publications, etc.) in Microsoft Word or Adobe PDF format. Your resume must include your contact information and your P number. The background investigation consent form may be downloaded to apply an electronic signature or printed and scanned for a physical signature.

In lieu of providing a cover letter, please respond to the following questions in your e-mail

1. Please identify the vacancy for which you are applying.
2. Have you previously served on the Commission on Well-Being in the Law? If so, when?
3. What experience do you have that makes you qualified for this appointment?
4. Why do you want to be appointed to the Commission on Well-Being in the Law?

Letters of recommendation are not required nor expected. All letters of recommendation must be received by the application deadline identified below.

Accessibility & Inclusion Statement

The Michigan Judicial Branch is committed to providing equal opportunities and creating an inclusive, respectful, and accessible place for all. If you require accommodations during the application process, please contact Councils and Commission at 517-373-2708.

Application Deadline: November 23, 2026