Judges

The above entitled cases involving a Second Amendment constitutional challenge to a state statute, the office of the Michigan Attorney General having not been notified of the appeals or being afforded an opportunity to brief or otherwise address the issues at the oral argument hearings of the respective cases heard on March 14, 2012,

The Court orders that, if it so chooses, the Office of the Michigan Attorney General may file a brief in the above entitled actions with 45 days of the filing of this order.

The Court further orders that the respective parties may file a response brief with 21 days after the filing of the Attorney General's brief.
