The motion to stay appellate proceedings is DENIED as moot because it appears that the district court has already ruled on defense counsel's motion to withdraw. Counsel should be aware, however, that if she wishes to withdraw as appellate counsel in this Court, she should file an appropriate motion to that effect. Unless and until she is granted leave to withdraw by this Court, she remains defendant's counsel of record in this appeal. See IOP 7.204(G)-2.

The delayed application for leave to appeal is GRANTED. The time for taking further steps in this appeal runs from the date of the Clerk's certification of this order. MCR 7.205(E)(3). Pursuant to MCR 7.205(E)(4), this appeal is not limited to the issues raised in the application and supporting brief. In addition, in their briefs on appeal, the parties should address whether defendant was constitutionally entitled to the assistance of counsel both at trial and on appeal in the circuit court. See People v Reichenbach, 224 Mich App 186, 191; 568 NW2d 383 (1997) (Reichenbach I); People v Reichenbach, 459 Mich 109, 117; 587 NW2d 1 (1998) (Reichenbach II); Alabama v Shelton, 535 US 654, 658; 122 S Ct 1764; 152 L Ed 2d 888 (2002).

On the Court's own motion pursuant to MCR 7.216(A)(7), this case is CONSOLIDATED with the related applications in Docket Nos. 382148, 382192, and 382352, People of the City of Livonia v Justin Jarvis-Jerome Phillips.
