STATE OF MICHIGAN
COURT OF CLAIMS

NICOLE BACON,

Plaintiff,

v

MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS,

Defendant.

No. 25-000025-MZ

HON. JAMES ROBERT REDFORD

Ian T. Cross (P83367)
Margolis & Cross
Attorney for Plaintiff
402 W. Liberty St.
Ann Arbor, MI 48103
(734) 994-9590
Ian@lawinannarbor.com

Scott L. Damich (P74126)
Thomas Quasarano (P27982)
Assistant Attorneys General
Attorney for Defendant
State Operations Division
P.O. Box 30754
Lansing, MI 48909
(517) 335-7573
damichs@michigan.gov
quasaranot@michigan.gov

---/

STIPULATED ORDER FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE MOTION FOR SUMMARY DISPOSITION

1. The parties previously agreed that the due date for a dispositive motion by the Parties should be January 16, 2026.

2. To avoid additional costs and attorneys' fees, the Parties agree that the deadline to file their dispositive motion should be extended for an additional 28 days.

RECEIVED by MCOC 1/15/2026 1:54:56 PM

3. Specifically, Defendant produced to Plaintiff what Defendant believes to be documents and information responsive to Plaintiff's FOIA request and not exempt from disclosure.

4. The parties intend to use additional time to resolve any disputes with the production and Plaintiff's remaining claims without the need for this Court's intervention.

IT IS ORDERED THAT the parties agree and stipulate that the due date for a dispositive motion by either party should be February 13, 2026.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: 1-16-2026

HON. JAMES ROBERT REDFORD

STIPULATED AND APPROVED FOR ENTRY:

/s/Ian T. Cross (w/permission)
Ian T. Cross (P83367)
Attorney for Plaintiff

/s/Scott L. Damich
Scott L. Damich (P74126)
Attorney for Defendant MDOC

RECEIVED by MCOC 1/15/2026 1:54:56 PM