STIPULATED ORDER OF EXPUNGEMENT

At a session of said Court held in the city of Lansing, County of Ingham, State of Michigan, on May 27, 2026.

PRESENT: MICHAEL F. GADOLA
Judge of the Court of Claims

RECEIVED by MCOC 5/21/2026 11:15:43 AM

The parties having entered into a Release and Settlement Agreement on May 13, 2026, resolving Plaintiff Roderic Pippen's claim under the Wrongful Imprisonment Compensation Act, MCL 691.1751 et seq, and parties having stipulated that Plaintiff is entitled to expungement under MCL 691.1755(14), and the Court being otherwise fully advised of the premises,

NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. Pursuant to MCL 691.1755(14), any and all records of Roderic Pippen's arrest, fingerprints, conviction, and sentence pertaining to his April 15, 2014, conviction in People v Roderick Pippen, Wayne County Circuit Court Case No. 10-006891-FC, shall be expunged from Roderic Pippen's criminal history record[1];

2. The State of Michigan shall forward a copy of this order to the prosecuting agency from which the conviction arose, to the Michigan Department of Corrections, and to the Michigan State Police in order to effectuate this Court's order. The Attorney General is not responsible for the compliance of other agencies with this order;

3. The Michigan State Police shall maintain a nonpublic record of the order setting aside conviction and of the arrest, fingerprints, conviction, and sentence of Roderic Pippen in each case to which this order applies. If the court or arresting agency maintains a record of the arrest, biometric data, conviction or sentence, that record shall be nonpublic and not used for any purpose unless authorized by law;

4. The Michigan Department of Corrections shall delete the Offender Tracking Information System (OTIS) entry but shall otherwise retain all physical records pursuant to the Michigan Department of Corrections record retention policy.

5. Plaintiff's counsel shall present a copy of the order to the circuit court in which the conviction arose, as well as to the arresting law enforcement agency.

[1] Please note, Mr. Pippen's first name is misspelled as "Roderick" instead of Roderic on his criminal records pertaining to Mr. Pippen's April 15, 2014, conviction in People v Roderick Pippen, Wayne County Circuit Court Case No. 10-006891-FC.
