COURT OF CLAIMS

MSX INTERNATIONAL RNS LLC,

Plaintiff,

v Case No. 25-000084-MT

MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF TREASURY, Hon. Michael F. Gadola

Defendant.

ORDER AMENDING SUMMARY DISPOSITION DEADLINES

On February 5, 2026, the Court entered a stipulated order extending summary disposition deadlines. Pursuant to that order, plaintiff's response to defendant's February 18, 2026 motion for summary disposition must be filed no later than March 9, 2026, and defendant's reply must be filed no later than March 16, 2026.

Plaintiff has moved to hold this case, which centers around the application of estimated payments that were made by a former affiliate of plaintiff, a portion of which plaintiff contends should be assigned to it, in abeyance. Plaintiff contends that it is engaged in discussions with the former affiliate regarding the attribution of payments and that if consent to assignment of payments to plaintiff is achieved this case can be dismissed. Plaintiff states in its motion that it requested concurrence in the motion and that defense counsel informed plaintiff that defendant had not yet responded to the request for concurrence.

The deadline for defendant to respond to plaintiff's motion to hold the case in abeyance is March 18, 2026. In the interest of judicial economy, the Court will extend the deadline for plaintiff to respond to defendant's motion for summary disposition so that the Court can first resolve plaintiff's motion to hold the case in abeyance.

Accordingly, the Court orders as follows:

1. Defendant must respond to plaintiff's motion to hold the case in abeyance no later than March 18, 2026.

2. If defendant concurs in the motion to hold the case in abeyance, the Court will enter an order holding the case in abeyance on the terms set by the Court in that order.

3. If defendant does not concur in the motion to hold the case in abeyance, plaintiff's reply to defendant's response to the motion to hold the case in abeyance must be filed no later than March 23, 2026.

4. If the Court denies the motion to hold the case in abeyance, plaintiff's response to defendant's motion for summary disposition must be filed no later than seven days after the Court enters an order denying the motion the motion to hold the case in abeyance.

5. If the Court grants the motion to hold the case in abeyance, the Court will enter an order holding the case in abeyance on the terms set by the Court in that order.

IT IS SO ORDERED. This is not a final order and does not close the case.

Date: March 6, 2026
