STATE OF MICHIGAN

COURT OF CLAIMS

D.M. ROTTERMOND, INC. d/b/a ROTTERMOND JEWELERS,

Plaintiff,

v Case No. 25-000136-MT

MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF TREASURY, Hon. Sima G. Patel

Defendant.
_____ /

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

Plaintiff filed suit on August 14, 2025, alleging that the Department of Treasury (Treasury) failed to provide several final assessments to plaintiff's designated representative in violation of the revenue act. The parties provided the Court with a stipulated scheduling order on October 16, 2025. Treasury has provided copies of communications between the parties agreeing that plaintiff would request an informal conference regarding the subject final assessments and once requested, the parties would stipulate to holding these Court proceedings in abeyance. On February 3, 2026, Treasury moved to compel discovery because plaintiff had not requested the informal conference and had provided no discovery, and because plaintiff's counsel stopped responding to defense counsel's communications on December 29, 2025. Plaintiff has not responded to that motion.

The Court ORDERS plaintiff to show cause why this action should not be dismissed for failure to provide discovery or otherwise prosecute its case. Plaintiff's response to this order must be filed no later than 3:00 p.m. on Wednesday, April 15, 2026. Failure to respond will result in the immediate dismissal of plaintiff's action. This is not a final order resolving all issues in this case.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
