ORDER OF DISMISSAL

On May 19, 2021, Judge Christopher M. Murray entered an order directing that any future complaints filed by Kevin William Cassaday in the Court Claims must be accompanied by a sworn statement attesting "that the complaint (1) has a basis in fact, and is not filed for purposes of harassment, and (2) that the allegations are not frivolous or made in bad faith." Failure to file a sworn statement would result in the immediate rejection of the complaint. The complaint with the accompanying sworn statement must be reviewed by the Chief Judge of the Court of Claims before it will be accepted for filing by the Clerk. Cassaday v Murdoch, Court of Claims Docket No. 21-000106-MZ.

Mr. Cassaday filed the current complaint on December 16, 2025. Due to short staffing during the holiday season, the Court did not immediately discover that this complaint was accepted for filing without a sworn statement. The Court DISMISSES plaintiff's complaint without prejudice to refiling the action along with a sworn statement as required by this Court's 2021 order.

This is a final order.
