05/21/2026 THIRD STIPULATION TO EXTEND TIME FOR DEFENDANTS TO ANSWER PLAINTIFFS' COMPLAINT

The parties, through their counsel, previously stipulated to extend the time for Defendants to file an answer to the complaint from April 21, 2026 to May 21, 2026. On April 21, 2026, this Court issued an order extending the time for Defendants to file its answer to May 21, 2026.

The parties are in the process of resolving this matter in its entirety. Plaintiffs filed an amended Individual Income Tax Return. Treasury is currently processing the amended return and additional time is necessary to complete processing of the amended return. Once that is completed, the parties will stipulate to dismiss this matter based on the amounts of tax liability, payments, and credits included in the amended tax return. The parties agree that extending the date for Defendants to file their answer by 14 days would assist the parties in resolving the matter in its entirety, thereby serving the interest of judicial economy.

The parties do not anticipate seeking any additional extensions.

Therefore, the parties, through their counsel, stipulate to extend the time for Defendants to file an answer to the complaint from May 21, 2026 to June 4, 2026.
