v Case No. 26-000134-MZ

JOCELYN BENSON and JONATHAN BRATER, Hon. Randy J. Wallace

Defendants.

ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFFS' UNOPPOSED MOTION TO EXCEED PAGE LIMIT FOR REPLY BRIEF

The parties have filed competing motions for summary disposition in this matter. Both parties have also filed response briefs. On July 20, 2026, plaintiffs moved the Court for leave to exceed the five-page limit in MCR 2.116(G)(1)(a)(iii) for their reply brief in support of summary disposition. Plaintiffs request an additional four pages. Plaintiffs filed a nine-page reply brief. Upon review of the motion, the Court GRANTS plaintiffs' request to extend the page limits for their reply brief for the instant motion for summary disposition, only. Plaintiffs' nine-page reply brief is accepted as filed.

IT IS SO ORDERED. This order does not resolve the last pending claim and does not close the case.

Date: July 21, 2026

Hon. Randy J. Wallace
Judge, Court of Claims
