NOTICE TO INTERESTED PERSONS

1. You must bring to the court's attention any objection you have to this account. Except in guardianships and conservatorships, the court does not normally review the account without an objection.
2. You have the right to review proofs of income and disbursements at a time reasonably convenient to the fiduciary and yourself.
3. You may object to all or part of an accounting by filing a written objection with the court before the court allows the account. You must pay a $20.00 filing fee to the court when you file the objection. (See MCR 5.310[C].)
4. If an objection is filed and is not otherwise resolved, the court will conduct a hearing on the objection.
5. You must serve the objection on the fiduciary or his/her attorney.
